YOUR VOTE – YOUR VOICE

Every day American children recite the Pledge of Allegiance in schools all across our nation. These words commit us to “liberty and justice for all,” and are drawn directly from the Preamble to the Constitution of the United States, our Nation’s founding document. Our commitment to these great ideals requires action, from us, “We the People.” And there is no action more basic to preserving our Republic than voting in our elections.

On August 14th, a state-wide primary election takes place that will direct the course of history, in Leon County, in Florida, and the Nation. Many of our local officials will be chosen on that Tuesday. City Commissioners, County Commissioners, our Sheriff, the Clerk of the Court, as well as state and federal offices will all be on the August ballot. There are more contests on the August 14th ballot than you’ll see on the ballot in November, but many of you probably will not vote in this election.

Why? Some will say they don’t have the time, or they only vote in the “big” elections in November. If this is you, I urge you to reconsider the decision not to vote. You see, you have a unique wisdom, the wisdom you have acquired through your own life experiences, and we, the rest of the community will be the poorer for it if you do not share that wisdom with the rest of us. That’s what your vote is. It reflects your life, your experiences, and it defines your definition of what ultimately is in your best interest.

I, nor anyone else, can tell you what is in your best interest. Only you can do that, and on August 14th, I challenge you to stand up for yourself and vote – and help all of us, “We the People,” rededicate ourselves to our land, our liberty and to justice “for all.” See you at the polls.

P.S. Several lawsuits are pending against the State of Florida which may alter the opening of Leon County’s early voting sites. For the latest on these legal developments and the early voting hours of our five early voting sites please call our office at 606-VOTE.

- Voter's identification has not yet been verified by the State of Florida.

- Voter did not bring picture I.D. to vote.
- The hours of voting have been extended by the Governor of Florida.

A Voted Provisional Ballot will count if:

- Voter's Residence Address is within the Precinct where ballot was cast.
- Affidavit envelope's certificate is completed by Voter.
- Affidavit envelope is signed by Voter.
- Voter is eligible to vote in Election.
- Voter provides additional information to Elections Office by 5:30 pm Thursday, August 16.

The most common reason a Provisional Ballot is issued is the Voter did not bring the Absentee Ballot to the polls for surrender to the Precinct worker.
